No. 299 Dated 24.8.24 Received 27-8-24

Diary No. 871	Enclos.	Spare Copies.	Serial No. 871

BRIEF ABSTRACT OF LETTER.

States that the running of 'Crown & Anchor' has come into vogue from a long time in the Bangalore races and requires whether the rule prohibiting the working of such tables may be relaxed as a special case in this instance.

NOTES AND ORDERS.

Submitted.

(1) Kind reference is invited to Govt. No. G. 22791-850/Fts 194-20-3 dt 30th May 1924 prohibiting the running of gaming tables such as the Crown and Anchor.

(2) At the time of the issue of this order, the Durbar has observed that the case of the Race course is quite different where such tables are allowed. 'So long as we allow betting in the course, the Crown and anchor which is not more objectionable has been tolerated' vide paragraph 17 of notes in Ch. file 194-20-Rb (1-3). (vide Rules in Rural Zh 180 of 1915 also)

W. (3) It is a point for consideration whether it will not be wholesome to accord a formal permission in the case. Submitted for orders.

(4) May be relaxed in the case of Horse-races. Even the Penal Code makes an exception in the case of betting on such occasions. A reply may perhaps be sent that precedent may be followed in this case

PROTECTION 27 AUG 1921

Sir,

With reference to the Government Order No.G.22791-850/Cts.194-20-3 dated 30th May 1921 inviting attention to the instructions contained in Government Order No.8792-842/Ml.98-14-14 dated 12th May 1915 re: the Crown & Anchor tables and directing that they should be strictly adhered to in future, I have the honor to state that at the request of Mr.Donne, Secretary of the Bangalore Races, licenses are being issued to him for years past to play the crown and anchor table on the race days subject to the condition that the play should be stopped immediately after the last race is run on the day and that no such licenses are issued to any others. As this practice has been long established on the Bangalore Race Course I request the favour of the orders of the Government as to whether the rule prohibiting the working of such tables may be continued to be relaxed as a special case in this instance.

I have the honor to be
